

Affirming Thoughts To Inspire And Encourage

By William Kuntz

I am a child of God - created in His image.

God loves me more than I can ever imagine.

No problem in my life is too big for me to solve, with God's help.

Each new day offers fresh opportunities for growth and success.

I believe in myself and in my God given abilities - no matter what others may think.

I don't have to please others - I can set my own standards.

I don't have to be perfect - I'm okay just the way I am.

If I live my life to please God, I can be happy with my efforts.

Whatever I achieve, it matters more that I did my best.

My value as a person is much greater than the sum of my accomplishments.

The gifts God has given me are meant to be shared.

Darkness is afraid of the light; when I allow God to fill me with His light there is no room for darkness.

God is always near - watching over me - even when I feel alone.

In all the world there is only one me; I am unique and no one else can take my place in God's grand plan.

If I admit that I have done wrong and ask Jesus Christ to forgive me - believing He died for my sins, He will forgive me - no matter what I have done or failed to do.

William Kuntz specializes in coaching pastors and ministry leaders. He is a creative, compassionate, caring coach who understands the difficult task of balancing personal needs, family, and career. You can reach Bill at nbcoaching@aol.com.